He made it public you head it and acted upon it. What if the prophet saw it didn't say a word and it happened would you have acted upon it? Prophets are like gongon beaters they speak the mind of God and if God chooses to make something public through his prophets why blame the prophet? Next time you consider suing someone it should be

God and not the prophets. Arrogant fools!

The Living God who gives them the prophecies is able to give them directions as to where to find them. Why do we belittle God. Am telling you 99% of the prophecies r not of God. The so called prophets are spiritual gangsters who bet on the lives of famous people. It is just like betting in sports, racing etc the fake prophets bet in the spiritual and they bring it out. STOP UNDERMINING GOD.

Enough is enough ghanian duplicate .God I asked you let all pastors who are publicly announcing the death of ghana stars experience the same with their first born and wife so the will see death is not so sweet .I wish I will get chance on any of the ghana radio station to pray that prayer publicly. my number is 066028336

please just approach the person and tell him what you've seen. Such prophecy should not be communicated through the medium of radio or anything of the sort. God told Iasiah to approach king Hezekiah about his death prophecy ... Our prophet which I'm also one by the grace of God let do all things in orderliness and in rightful manner. Such prophecy is not to impress anyone. is good to have prophet in town but not the kind of prophet that will not edify us but rather terrify us..

why is it that some pastors don't think? how can you stand in public telling someone that he will die. It is nonsense. Ghanaian should be very careful about fake pastor. God didn't call him, He has collected power from somewhere trying to get something to feed his family and wife.
